HISTORY OF THE THEATRE

Opened on August 20, 1927 as a showcase for vaudeville, touring shows, and movies, the Gloria Theater was built by Albert Sottile and operated by his Pastime Amusement Company for nearly fifty years. Designed as a smaller version of the great movie palaces of the era, it seated nearly 2,000 and was lauded for the grandeur of its architecture and design. The theater continually provided entertainment for Charleston residents until its closing in 1975, and is the only one of Albert Sottile's many beautiful movie houses that is still operating as a performing arts space today.

The College of Charleston acquired the Gloria from the Sottile family in 1976 and began renovations and refurbishments on the theater a decade later. During the years of disuse, the theater fell into disrepair. The initial renovations included urgently needed repairs to the building; preservation of many of the theater's original details including the illuminated blue dome with its twinkling stars, the addition of heating and air conditioning, an expanded stage, and a rear addition to house dressing rooms, a green room, and much needed storage space. When the theater's doors opened again in February 1990, it was as the newly named Sottile Theatre - in honor of Albert.

The most recent renovation in 2019 focused on modernizing and updating the stage house, replacing the Theatre's original 1920's hemp rigging system with a modern counterweight system, expanding the wing space and stage access, and the addition of an automated orchestra pit lift.

Additionally, the Theatre's decorative murals, which were discovered behind acoustic tiles in 2011, have been restored and returned to their original beauty. Painted on canvas by Italian artists in the 1920s, one scene depicts a centaur and nymphs before a forested and mountainous background. The other shows classical figures celebrating music and drama before a blue-green sea.

The Sottile Theatre hosts a wide variety of events in the performing arts, serving as the site of many College of Charleston events and programs, as well as many community-oriented and privately sponsored events.
BOOKING THE THEATRE

A. PLACING A HOLD
Hold requests will be accepted up to 12 months in advance for any available dates. Any requests more than one year in advance will be considered tentative. All hold requests must be made via the Rental Request Form available on the Sottile website.

All hold requests will be valid for 30 days or until challenged by another client. After 30 days, a client must sign a contract and provide full payment for all deposits and advance fees. If you are the first to request a date, you are given the “first hold” for that date, giving the first right of refusal (we will not offer that date to another party without first giving you the opportunity to secure the date with an executed contract and deposit).

If a hold already exists on a date(s) in which you are interested, a secondary hold can be requested for that date(s). This gives you the option to execute a contract should those holds above yours not finalize arrangements.

B. RENTAL CONTRACT
Once an event has been approved and the dates confirmed, an initial discussion between the Renter and the Director of Operations will provide information for a preliminary Event Cost Estimate. A Rental Contract will then be issued and must be signed and returned, along with the Deposit, within 10 business days. If the Agreement, Estimate and Deposit are not returned signed within 10 business days, the Theatre reserves the right to release the dates held. The Renter will be notified of the release.

C. CHALLENGING A HOLD
If a date has a “first hold” or a Contract and Deposit have not been received, a second client can challenge the hold through the following procedures:

- The Challenger must notify the Director of Operations by email of the dates they are challenging and submit a deposit for the full facility rental.
- The first Client will be notified by phone and in writing of the challenge for the date and will have 2 business days after notification to submit a non-refundable deposit* for the full facility rental and a signed Rental Contract.
- Should the first Client release the date or not meet the deadline of 2 business days, the Challenger must execute a Rental Contract within 48 hours and the facility deposit will become non-refundable*.
- Should the first party secure the date, the Challenger’s deposit check will be voided and returned.

D. RENTAL RATES
Please refer to the rate sheet for a list of all charges. Any questions about the rate sheet should be directed to the Theatre’s Director of Operations prior to signing the contract.
E.  DEPOSITS AND FINAL PAYMENTS

All Rental Contracts must be accompanied by a deposit (50% of the total facility rental fee), except in the case of a challenge booking in which case 100% of the facility rental fee is required and is non-refundable.

First time renters may also be required to pay estimated tech and labor expenses in addition to rent at the time of the signing of the Rental Contract.

Any renter who in a previous rental exceeded 90 days past due or had a payment returned for insufficient funds, will be required to pay the total estimate in advance via cashier's check or money order with the signed contract.

Any remaining facility rental fee will be due two weeks (14 days) prior to load in.

A final bill, with tech and labor fees, will be issued to the Renter within 30 days of load out and will be due within in 30 days of invoice date.

Deposits received through the challenge process will not be refunded under any circumstance regardless of when a cancellation occurs.

PARKING & DIRECTIONS

PATRON PARKING
There are three parking garages located near the Theatre that are available for event parking:
- St. Philip Street Garage at 89 St. Philip St. between Vanderhorst and Calhoun streets
- George Street Garage at 34 St. Philip St. between George and Liberty streets
- Wentworth Garage at 81 Wentworth St. at the intersection of Wentworth and St. Philip streets with an additional entrance at Beaufain Street

LOADING ZONE PARKING
The Sottile Theatre Loading Zone is available for use by Renters from Load-In Date to Load-Out Date. Up to six cars, dependent upon size, can fit in the Loading Zone. Permits will be issued at Load-In and must be displayed at all times. Vehicles without a visible permit are subject to ticketing and towing at owner’s expense. It is the Renter’s responsibility to make sure all cars associated with their group have a permit displayed. The Sottile Theatre cannot waive parking fees or fines assessed by the College of Charleston or City of Charleston due to an improperly displayed or missing permit.

BUS & TRUCK PARKING
The Sottile Theatre does not provide parking or shore power for buses or trucks. Please contact the Technical Director to discuss offloading cast/crew members and available locations for bus/truck parking.

DIRECTIONS FROM I-26
From I-26 East: Exit at 221-B and turn right onto Meeting Street. Take Meeting Street to George Street, and turn right onto George Street. Cross King Street, and the theatre’s main entrance will be on your right. To access the Loading Zone, take your first right after you pass the Theatre’s main entrance. Turn right again at the end of the building. The loading zone runs along the back side of the Theatre. See diagram below.
CAMPUS SERVICES
PRINTING SERVICES
Clients may choose to have their posters and program books printed in the College's Copy Center. If you choose this option, Sottile staff will arrange for the delivery of prints to the Theatre, hang posters, and prep program books.

POSTERS
- Standard: 24” x 36” - $36 each
- Fill the Window: 28” x 53” - $60 each
